

Wuhan Municipal Bureau of Public Security Zhongnan Road Street [sic] Station

Letter of Reprimand

Wu Gong (Zhong) Zi (20200103)

Reprimanded party: Li Wenliang

Sex: Male

Date of birth: Oct. 12, 1986

ID type and number: [redacted]

Current address (domicile): Wuhan [remainder redacted]

Work unit: Wuhan City Center Hospital 武汉市中心医院

Unlawful act (time, place, participants, number of participants, reflecting what problem, consequences, etc.): On Dec. 30, 2019, in the WeChat group “Wuhan University Clinical Class of ‘04”, posted untruthful speech about 7 cases of SARS being diagnosed [relating to] the Huanan Fruit and Seafood Market.

Now, in accordance with law, we present you with a warning and a reprimand regarding your posting of untruthful speech on the internet. Your action gravely disturbed social order. Your action has already exceeded the scope of what is permitted by law; it has violated the relevant provisions of the “People’s Republic of China Security Administration Punishment Law.” It is an unlawful act!

The public security organ hopes you will actively cooperate in their work, listen to the admonition of the police, and from now on cease unlawful activity. Can you do that?

Answer: Yes [fingerprint]

We hope you will cool down and reflect carefully, and solemnly warn [告诫] you: If you stubbornly insist on maintaining your own view, without a thought of repentance, and continue to engage in unlawful acts, you will suffer legal sanctions! Have you got that? [听明白]

Answer: I’ve got it.

Reprimanded party: Li Wenliang [signature]

Jan. 3, 2020

Reprimander: Hu Guifang 胡桂芳, Xu Jinhang 徐金杭 Work unit:

[Seal] Wuhan Municipal Public Security Bureau, Wuchang District Sub-bureau, Zhongnan Road Street, Zhongnan Road Station

Jan. 3, 2019 [sic]